CALL TO WORSHIP

Cast the net, Jesus said to the disciples who had an empty net;
We come with empty hands and hearts to be filled by your Spirit.

Bring some fish, Jesus asked the disciples who listened to him and returned with net-full of fish;

We come to your presence with the gifts of the Spirit you have blessed us with.

Come and have breakfast, Jesus invited the disciples after their intensive labor;

We accept your invitation to be fed, empowered, equipped, and sent in your name.

HYMN

“Christ is Risen”

TFWS #2115

Christ has risen where hope died, as he said and as he promised, as we doubted and denied. Let the moon embrace the blessing;
let the sun sustain the cheer; let the world confirm the rumor:
Christ is risen, God is here!

Christ has risen for the people whom he died to love and save;
Christ has risen for the women bringing flowers to grace his grave.
Christ has risen for disciples huddled in an upstairs room.
He whose word inspired creation can't be silenced by the tomb.

Christ has risen to companion former friends who fear the night, sensing loss and limitation where their faith had once burned bright.
They bemoan what is no longer, they expect no hopeful sign till Christ ends their conversation, breaking bread and sharing wine.

Christ has risen and forever lives to challenge and to change all whose lives are messed or mangled, all who find religion strange.
Christ is risen, Christ is present making us what he has been evidence of transformation in which God is known and seen.

HYMN	"Lord, You Have Come to the Lakeshore"	UMH #344
Lord, you have come to the lakeshore looking neither for wealthy nor wise ones; you only asked me to follow humbly.

Refrain

O Lord, with your eyes you have searched me,
and while smiling have spoken my name;
now my boat's left on the shoreline behind me;
by your side I will seek other seas.

You know so well my possessions; my boat carries no gold and no weapons; you will find there my nets and labor.
Refrain

You need my hands, full of caring through my labors to give others rest, and constant love that keeps on loving.
Refrain

You, who have fished other oceans, ever longs for by souls who are waiting, my lover friend, as thus you call me.
Refrain

CHURCH ON THE CAPE

United Methodist Church

We of the Church on the Cape represent various religious and cultural backgrounds and life styles. We are young, old, and middle aged, single, married, widowed, divorced, parents, grandparents, and members of extended families. Above all, we are people who take risks, make mistakes, confess, repent and try again.

At the center of our community is Jesus the Christ whose life, death and resurrection are the reasons we are together. The life and hope in this community has more to do with Christ's faithfulness to us than ours to Christ.

Whether you are searching for a faith community, or just passing through, we want you to feel at home. Whoever you are - whatever your history, your scars, your gifts - you are among persons like yourself.

*Join us from wherever you call home:
If you like what you see here, we post our worship music, children's messages and sermons online - you can find them via our website, www.churchonthecape.org.*
